

Please see below the Club's rules for paying by Direct Debit.

1. By agreeing to pay your subscription by direct debit, you accept that you are paying in arrears for the subscription due on January 1st each year.
2. Membership can only be cancelled at each subscription year-end. i.e. in December each year.
3. If a member cancels their direct debit instruction at any point during a subscription year, they will be held liable for the remainder of the monies due.
4. The Club reserves the right to pursue any monies outstanding inclusive of entry fees through our debt recovery agent and through the small claims court if necessary.
5. Any member missing two consecutive months direct debits will be deleted from the direct debit scheme and held liable for the remainder of the monies due.
